

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS ALL OVER THE WORLD

Short Stories of Unusual Happenings and Singular Experiences Picked Out of the Chronicles of the Day.

Fifteen-year-old Helen Forsyth, of Yonkers, has just learned that she will have $2,000 when she becomes of age. Her politeness brought her the money.

Her parents visited her in the institution a secret from her and she learned her news in a different way. She was surprised and delighted when she received the money.

WOMAN HIT JUDGE ON NOSE WITH EGG.

Delia Johnson, of Chicago, hit Judge Crowe on the nose with an egg yesterday when he refused to grant a divorce to her.

A second egg hit her on the nose when she was refused a divorce. She was in jail and had to pay for her keep.

DOG, LOCKED IN, GOT AID BY TELEPHONE.

See, a dog was locked in a room in the office of William & Co., commission merchants in Chicago. He promptly telephoned for aid.

See, a dog was locked in a room in a telephone exchange. When he found himself locked in, he barked and howled until he was rescued.

FALSE TEETH STOP GRAIN PIT TRADING.

A messenger found a set of false teeth on the floor of the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday.

Those are the teeth of a man who had been trading grain pits. He was found by a messenger.

WON'T BARE HIS WIFE DEMANDS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Irene A. Strain, of Washington, Pa., testified yesterday in her suit for divorce.

GAS-ELECTRIC CAR TESTED.

Schenectady, N. Y., Jan. 16.—Seven miles of hard running over all kinds of roads, today showed that the new type of gas-electric car made by the General Electric company is a decided success and it promises to revolutionize railroading.

The test of the car was an official one. In a space of eight and one-half miles, the car consumed the power of a transmission line, substation and all the lights of the city.
